

Motley Rice is one of the nation's largest plaintiffs' litigation firms. Our mission transcends cases and awards as we fight for big causes and work to advance the greater good, not just for our clients, but for society as a whole. Our attorneys aggressively seek justice and accountability for victims across a broad range of impactful litigation, spanning securities and consumer fraud, occupational disease and toxic tort, medical drugs and devices, environmental damage, antiterrorism, human rights abuses and other case areas. Strengthened by a breadth and depth of knowledge, resources and experience, our attorneys have helped shape some of the most significant settlements and decisions over the past 30 years as we diligently work to protect the rights of consumers, families, investors, businesses and public entities.

We are currently seeking an Associate Attorney to join our Firm's Cherry Hill, NJ- based office location.

Working with other Attorneys and staff, along with co-counsel, and other third-parties, the Associate will manage all aspects of litigation intake and case development, Discovery, document review, depositions & expert witness matters and trial-related duties.

Applicants for the Associate role must have a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree from an Accredited School of Law and possess an active license in good standing in the State of New Jersey and/or Pennsylvania. Candidates should have 3-5 years post-JD legal experience and possess strong legal writing and research skills. Experience with complex litigation matters is highly preferred.

Some travel will be required as cases are being litigated across the country.
