

Motley Rice is one of the nation's largest plaintiffs' litigation firms. Our mission transcends cases and awards as we fight for big causes and work to advance the greater good, not just for our clients, but for society as a whole. Our attorneys aggressively seek justice and accountability for victims across a broad range of impactful litigation, spanning securities and consumer fraud, occupational disease and toxic tort, medical drugs and devices, environmental damage, antiterrorism, human rights abuses and other case areas. Strengthened by a breadth and depth of knowledge, resources and experience, our attorneys have helped shape some of the most significant settlements and decisions over the past 30 years as we diligently work to protect the rights of consumers, families, investors, businesses and public entities.

The firm is seeking a Mid-Level Litigation Associate (3 to 7 years litigation experience following law school) to work in the firm's New York, NY or Hartford, CT office.

The associate will support the firm's Securities and Consumer Fraud Practice Group, with a focus on representing whistleblowers in False Claims Act qui tam cases and agency whistleblower submissions, as well as victims of corporate fraud and misconduct in a range of federal and state cases nationwide. Applicants for this position should ideally be strong legal writers and courtroom advocates with experience handling investigations, discovery, depositions, motion practice, experts, and client relations in complex cases. Prior experience with plaintiff-side and whistleblower litigation is a plus but is not required.

Some travel will be required as cases are being litigated across the country.

Salary range for this position is $135,000-$165,000 annually
