

Motley Rice is one of the nation's largest plaintiffs' litigation firms. Our mission transcends cases and awards as we fight for big causes and work to advance the greater good, not just for our clients, but for society as a whole. Our attorneys aggressively seek justice and accountability for victims across a broad range of impactful litigation, spanning securities and consumer fraud, occupational disease and toxic tort, medical drugs and devices, environmental damage, antiterrorism, human rights abuses and other case areas. Strengthened by a breadth and depth of knowledge, resources and experience, our attorneys have helped shape some of the most significant settlements and decisions over the past 30 years as we diligently work to protect the rights of consumers, families, investors, businesses and public entities.

The Firm is seeking an Associate Attorney with 3-5 years of litigation experience to join our Hartford office.

The Associate will handle a full range of litigation responsibilities in complex plaintiffs' matters. The ideal candidate is someone who can run discovery independently, take depositions confidently, and write persuasively—and whose goal is to excel at all three. The Associate will work primarily on ERISA class-action matters, but will also support other Hartford-based litigation, including qui tam actions and consumer class actions. Some travel will be required as cases are being litigated across the country.

Primary Responsibilities

- Assist with managing discovery, including strategic planning and scheduling
- Draft and negotiate document requests, interrogatories, and other discovery demands
- Conduct meet-and-confers with opposing counsel to resolve discovery disputes
- Review and analyze document productions
- Organize and prepare deposition exhibits and supporting materials
- Take and defend depositions of fact witnesses
- Conduct legal research and draft memoranda on substantive and procedural issues
- Prepare drafts of pleadings, motions, and briefs
- Assist in preparing witnesses for depositions and testimony

Qualifications

Required

- J.D. from an accredited law school
- 3-5 years of litigation experience with substantial discovery responsibilities
- Admission to the Connecticut bar (or eligibility for admission upon hire)
- Self-starter with exceptional organizational skills and attention to detail
- Strong analytical, research, and writing skills, and attention to detail
- Ability to manage multiple priorities and meet deadlines in a fast-paced environment
- Commitment to plaintiffs'-side litigation

Strongly Preferred

- Experience with ERISA litigation or cases involving complex financial products
- Experience taking and defending depositions

Some travel will be required as cases are being litigated across the country.

Salary range for this position is $145,000-$155,000
