

Motley Rice is one of the nation's largest plaintiffs' litigation firms. Our mission transcends cases and awards as we fight for big causes and work to advance the greater good, not just for our clients, but for society as a whole. Our attorneys aggressively seek justice and accountability for victims across a broad range of impactful litigation, spanning securities and consumer fraud, occupational disease and toxic tort, medical drugs and devices, environmental damage, antiterrorism, human rights abuses and other case areas. Strengthened by a breadth and depth of knowledge, resources and experience, our attorneys have helped shape some of the most significant settlements and decisions over the past 30 years as we diligently work to protect the rights of consumers, families, investors, businesses and public entities.

The firm is seeking a 5-8 year Litigation Associate in its South Carolina office, located minutes from downtown Charleston. Candidates should have 5-8 years of mass tort litigation experience along with strong writing, analytical, and writing skills, and substantial experience taking depositions, developing liability, working with experts, interfacing with clients, and managing aspects of mass tort litigation. The position will require significant travel.

Applicants for this position must have a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree from an Accredited School of Law and possess an active license in good standing with the State of South Carolina. Those not licensed in South Carolina could be considered for the position but would be required to gain admission to the South Carolina Bar in order to maintain employment.

To be considered for this exciting opportunity, please send a resume, cover letter detailing your experience and interest in doing mass tort litigation, writing sample and contacts for at least two references to staffing@motleyrice.com.

Salary Range: $150,000-$175,000 annually
