>I feel like we should push for this managed by thing

[REDACTED] (1/13/2017 12:28:36 PST):
>Don't know how you feel

Justin Antony (1/13/2017 12:35:09 PST):
>Yes agreed. I also think we should look at a way to tweak the user experience by possibly adjusting feed/delivery, featuring, and redesigning the interface for teens to be more teen centric. Teens need to see other teens and tweens on the platform so that they feel the app is for a them. Right now they see too many adults on the platform but if they see more of themselves (ala musical.ly leaderboards) then it will be a better community for them

>Finstas everyone is saying is our way "in" but I think we should more look at why teens use finstas. They use finstas because they see too many adults. So we need to find a way to keep adults off teen feed.
