5 choices, only from that list. Rockville is a DC suburb, so I think we should probably include it even though it's boring. LA, Dallas and St. Louis I think also all make sense. So that leaves one to choose from. Tampa gets us both Senators Rubio and Scott, which is something. Or Little Rock which gets us Cotton. We can ask PTA to choose for us, unless there's a strong preference for one or the other.

How many locations can we choose? It'd be great if we could include major market media centers. Their list doesn't include many though. If they're open to a few different locations, we could be a bit more strategic and target media DMAs and sensitive political districts. For media, it'd be great to have Chicago, New York, Washington DC?

Of the list they sent, I agree with [REDACTED] on most of these, but suggest the following:

- LA, CA
- Augusta (relatively close to Atlanta)
- Dallas, TX
- St. Louis, MO (Sen. Hawley constituents)
- Little Rock, AR (Sen Cotton constituents)
- Tampa, FL (largest DMA in FL)
- Pullayup, WA (close-ish to Seattle-Tacoma DMA)

Hi [REDACTED] thoughts on below?

- LA (other SoCal options are Downey or Cerritos)
- Tampa

- Rockville, MD (proximity to DC)
- Dallas or Plano, TX
- St Louis (Hawley's state) or Little Rock (Cotton's state)

The only Northern CA town is Visalia, outside SF.

Hi TikTok Team,

It was wonderful to spend some time getting to know everyone yesterday!

These are the locations of the 39 PTAs who are qualified to host a great digital safety event night. We are in contact with them to see if they are able to schedule an event during the month of February to join us in celebrating Safer Internet Day. Please let me know up to 5 locations that are of high importance to you and we will work to make sure that we can align events at those locations as best we can.

Please let us know the locations by Wed. 11/13.

Best,
