Hey [REDACTED] hope you've been doing well since our Lark days [呲牙] I think [REDACTED] may have briefed you on the project M requirements we've been working on, but wanted to touch base with you to see if your team has any bandwidth to support building out two very urgent projects:

- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]

In case you're unfamiliar, project M is a set of product changes we're making as a way to demonstrate our commitment to minor safety and wellbeing. We've been asked by leadership to release these by March 23rd since that's when Shou is testifying in front of congress

@Jordan Furlong Nice to work with you since Lark days[呲牙]. For those two features, I thought my mobile team in CN [REDACTED] is aware of it. Is there any additional ask?

Jordan Furlong 2023-02-15 21:16:45

[REDACTED] We've already brought the CN team the other P00 projects as a part of project M and they are at capacity for meeting the March 23rd deadline, so wanted to see if your team had bandwidth

@Matthew Tenenbaum My mobile team in the US is occupied by another 2 project-M projects. I'll have to ask see if we could do it. In the meantime, for the project below. Do you expect mobile only or mobile+server? [REDACTED] - Need Support

I'll double check with the RD's and should know tomorrow if we need both mobile + server. My sense is that we have more server folks and so mobile is more necessary. But, to be conservative I think it's better to assume we need both.

██████████'s team could support it. But it would be helpful if we could cut some scope of this feature so that the timeline could be facilitated. ██████████ PRD is not yet ready. The tech stack for this area uses Lynx. My team has limited knowledge of Lynx, it's not very efficient for my team to learn it and do the work. For all the P00 PRD, we suggest cutting scope of those PRDs, that way ██████████'s team might be able to facilitate some of the features.
