11887	9/14/2019 12:01	I have a seven-year-old granddaughter somehow has been exposed to early for TikTok app she simply adores and absorbs what she sees. I have only one suggestion and I'm hoping that this is one that you've heard before. What I'm asking for is a parental control feature when that allows us who are concerned about children who are too young to experience your app. Also feel free to contact me I personally do not use social media at all. However I do have an email address that I use frequently that address is ; [REDACTED- PII]@yahoo.com. I look forward to hearing back from anyone who will get this and give me an opportunity to protect the little ones. ----- a parental control feature
