or like sorry let me clarify: Predator model= the model that's picking up a lot of sexual harassment, weird guys, some grooming but not that much, etc Dm predator queue: DMs that are flagged and reviewed by moderation and escalated to LERT cuz they look risky DM Predator account Model= I'm not sure

[REDACTED] 2020-08-26 20:31:00

id defer to [REDACTED] here

[REDACTED] 2020-08-26 20:31:00

sorry

[REDACTED] 2020-08-26 20:31:00

my understanding is yours

Amy Classen 2020-08-26 20:31:00

all good! I don't think it exists fwiw

just needed to gut check with you to make sure I wasn't crazy

Amy Classen 2020-08-26 20:32:00

maybe you would say, "you've never heard of the model we use against DMs to identify grooming?" and I'd be like "omg I've been fighting for this for nothing! WOOHOO!" :)

Amy Classen 2020-08-26 20:34:00

do you use tiktok? I'm addicted. There's this whole trend for this song with the lyrics "I am lost" and it just makes me think of WORKING at tiktok every time I see it

i do use tiktok.. it is hilarious and super fun

Amy Classen 2020-08-26 20:44:00

I seriously love it so much haha

Amy Classen 2020-08-27 18:41:00

hello friend, so I spoke with  about NCMEC and the engineers are confused about how NCMEC is hashing and they are wondering if they can arrange a technical conversation with someone on their end to run a test. The TLDR is that we aren't sure if we've hashed our images the same way that they have and when we test it the only images that are returned are 'pure color' images so they think that there's some difference in how they've hashed versus us. The background is that we used the hashing technique through Microsoft PhotoDNA but for some reason it is still returning no results. I added in comments to the doc but it sounds like using a test image (non-CSAM) is an option and the engineers are requesting this as well

██████████ 2020-08-27 18:42:00

ill reach out to ██████████ and set up a call

██████████ 2020-08-27 18:43:00

she did say their video content is not that robust so that might be why - but we will start that conversation- no problem

Amy Classen 2020-08-27 18:43:00

nice, that is great

██████████ 2020-09-09 18:40:00

hey there

██████████ 2020-09-09 18:40:00

i guess i pissed some people off with my update about the ncme reporting...i didn't mean to ██████████ 2020-09-09 18:41:00

i guess the engineers who did the work thought i didn't recognize them at all.. when my update was more about the next phase of the roll out- and not about the amazing work they did

██████████ 2020-09-09 18:41:00

if you hear anything, please echo that.. obviously their work is super critical and hugely important

██████████ 2020-09-09 18:41:00

Amy Classen 2020-09-09 20:43:00

Hi hi it's ok and I'm so sorry that happened and I read this as an effort led by LERT with huge amounts of work done by others (as with any update we do). Don't beat yourself up about it. I think you've been an amazing partner. Separately, I also want to acknowledge I've been pinging you on a lot of separate threads and I'm sure that is stressful. Do you think a weekly or biweekly sync between us is useful? I want to be cognizant of your time considering every project will also have its own meetings spun up so let me know if YE OLDE LARK BONANZA works for you. Usually I just start the week going through the 900 messages I got over the weekend and make my way through them and then start over again, and around and around we go. Lmk what you prefer on this and also you have been such a great partner on everything, I just wanted to say THANK YOU

██████████ HEART 2020-09-09 20:45:37

██████████ 2020-09-09 20:45:00

a sync probably makes sense.. i know i have to review like 10 groups re the predator stuff

██████████ 2020-09-09 20:46:00

so let me catch up

[REDACTED] 2020-09-09 20:46:00

but yeah- i think a sync would work wonders

[REDACTED] 2020-09-09 20:46:00

(i hate lark sometimes)

Amy Classen 2020-09-09 21:14:00

Me too :) let's do that. I'll start a 1:1 doc so there's a centralized list somewhere until we get asana rolled out hello friend! We're going to be launching the ability to report a privacy violation (that your- or your child's- photo, voice, image, etc were used without your consent). ██████████ ██████████ is a new manager in Dublin who will be helping MS out while we hire our PgM there and she will be taking this on. I'll spin up a working group on this next week but I'm wondering if you think these reports should be handled by LERT, a different specialized team, or general moderators? My instinct here is that this will almost always need to be an email exchange because it's going to be really hard to get enough information from just a report but I'm wondering what your instincts are on this in-app you mean?
