1 MR. ACKERMAN: Object to form.

2 A. No.

3 Q. (BY MR. HORVITZ) So in your investigation you did
4 not care in the slightest whether your accounts were even
5 remotely representative of what a typical teenager's
6 experience would be?

7 MR. ACKERMAN: Object to form.

8 A. I take offense to your comment. It's rude. It's 9 not that I don't care in the slightest or we wouldn't even 10 be here.

11 Repeat the question, please.

12 Q. (BY MR. HORVITZ) I will phrase the question
13 differently.

14 A. Thank you.

15 Q. In your investigation, it was not your goal to 16 create accounts that were representative of what a typical
17 teenager would see or experience on Meta's apps?

18 A. I think that's inaccurate.

19 Q. Okay. And so your testimony is, you do not know
20 if any teenagers had professional accounts on Meta's apps,
21 but you wanted him to -- you wanted him to monetize these
22 accounts?

23 MR. ACKERMAN: Object to form.

24 A. I did not ask him to monetize these accounts.

25 These are the things that he -- that he was approached with
