Thank you for checking and replying so quickly. As I thought, no additional questions.

Hi Antigone,
I've checked the video and it doesn't violate our polices. We only remove content that promotes, encourages, coordinates, or gives instructions for suicide.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks
Mai

This is a video of a high school student attempting to commit suicide by jumping from a building. I don't think it violates our community standards but our contact at the NY Dept of Education has checked in on it because he feels it is making the situation worse. I said I would at least have the video reviewed. Thanks!

Antigone,

This video - https://www.facebok.com/[redacted]5/videos/vb.1440720590/10206970991740187/?type=3&theater – contains footage of one of our students attempting to jump off a parking garage in the Bronx. The young lady involved in struggling and her classmates are now seeing this video and making comments about it, thus prolonging an already very difficult situation. Any chance this can be removed? I'm not sure if it violates your guidelines. Please advise.

Thanks,

John Benson
